

SYC Build Team Volunteer Role Description

Job title: Build Team Volunteer

Reporting to: Build Team Leader

Hours: From the Wednesday before camp in conversation with the Build Team Leader.

Location: The whole camp site

About the Role: The Build Team are responsible for building different items to enhance the SYC experience. The team are responsible for creating things that are required for the SYC Village, Activity Team, Speaker Responses and anywhere else they might be needed. There will be times when you will volunteer in the team and other times you will get a break.

Key Responsibilities

SYC Build Team Volunteer Role Description

Duties of the role	Time spent	Description
Building items for SYC	100%	Using skills and tools to build different items for the Camp Village, Activities Team and Speaker responses.

Work experience and skills

A passion and knowledge of how to create and build things in a safe way. A knowledge on how to use a variety of required tools is also important. Having own tools is also desirable. Due to the team nature of the role, an ability to encourage and support the volunteers is also important.

Role Description Approved by:

Jo White 29th April 2024